V. Committee Reports:

- a) Archery: looking at getting dates on the calendar for winter league and youth archery league.
- b) Accuracy Shooting: looking at next year possibilities. Not sure who will lead the league
- c) Audit Committee: No discussion
- d) Education: Hunter's Ed was in Sept and all 18 students passed. They said thank you for the use of the facilities.
- e) Land Development: Covered in Pistol range discussion.
- f) Long Range Planning: No Discussion
- g) Membership: 707 Work with new way to sign up with new memberships as they come in, not in the mass enrollment at the beginning of the year. This will give us time to work out issues and get familiar with the program.
- h) Nominating Committee: Keep in mind people you think would be willing to be on nomination committee.
- i) Community Relations: Looking at launching requests for hunting pictures again on FB. Promoting Public sight in days. Larry would like us to get our name out in the community. Possibly look at benefiting a non-profit during one of our public archery shoots.
- j) Pistol/Small Bore Range: Utilities have been marked. Concrete will start the week of Oct 13th. Excavation will be completed along with that. Will need to shut down other pistol range for safety. Al will also keep asking about the other trap house.
- k) Rifle Range: Rebuild completed. Should have enough ties for next year. There are leaning trees between the 100 – 200 yard markers that will need to be cut down. Al will cut down in the morning before the rifle range opens. Brackets were placed in the walls of the shed to hold the backers up off the floor. Will keep mice out of them too.
- l) Trap/High School Trap: Turkey shoot went well. 30 people showed up and prizes and food made for a good time.

VI. Old Business: None

VII. New Business: Monies allotted for gas cards as a thank you for the use of the skidsteers during the range rebuild. Proposed new picnic tables, the wood ones that are beyond saving will be burned in the fire pit.

Monies have been allotted for the public sight in.

Monies allotted for donation to Star Prairie Fish and Game Buck Night Dinner.

VIII. Adjournment: Time: 8:21pm
