- b) ARA (Am. Rimfire Assoc.) No Discussion
- c) Audit Committee: No Discussion
- d) Education: Field day is full – online hunter safety class is full Range safety officer training- 9 hr class. 4 individuals interested in course. Wondering about use of club house for that class as well. Get Wayne dates and times.
- e) Long Range Planning/ Land Development: 80-100 Railroad ties procured. Al will call back and see if getting 200 is a possibility
- f) Membership: 747 members – new record. 40 Higher than ever before
- g) Nominating Committee: No Discussion
- h) Community Relations: Public Sight-in is coming up. 11-1, 11-8, 11-15
- i) Pistol/Small Bore Range: 1/3 of stock gone 23 backers left. Larry changed out backers. Found pop cans shot up and 30-30 brass.
- j) Rifle Range: Condition of the range is good. Not a lot of holes in the white
- k) Trap/High School Trap: HS Trap paid up for 2026, asking for a price for 2027 so they can budget that into dues. Trap leagues are done, 9.10 was the last night.

VI. Old Business: - Matt Anderson has bid a trap house demo, haul and build, he can start the first week of November. Is this something we want to go ahead on?

VII. New Business: Monies allocated for NRA RSO training.

Increasing membership dues to $120. Putting in volunteer hours will still pay the same discounted price. Monies allocated for trap house. Jerry will look into any price increase on clays for HS Trap.

1 membership suspended for using a rifle caliber weapon on the pistol range.

VIII. Adjournment: Time 8:20 pm
